Dear Family at PLC

“For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.” Rom. 15:4 (Italics mine)

Where did the summer go? It’s a question many of us ask ourselves this time of year. In a few weeks most backcountry campgrounds will close for the season and before you know it snow will once again be a prominent feature on the peaks surrounding our beautiful valley. Leaves are already turning color in the high country and the water temperature of our rivers will soon cool down. It’s a good thing for it’s been a hot summer!

Fall is beyond a doubt my favorite time of year. If you’re a sports fan (are you ready for some football?) there’s plenty to keep you entertained; if you’re a hunter now is when you put some legs to your planning; if you’re a fisherman the fish are on the bite again; if you’re a hiker the forest service trails are still open, and if you’re a student or teacher, school is back in session. In short, there is a LOT going on!

But with that, perhaps as you read the list of Christian Education opportunities listed at the beginning of this newsletter you thought, “Man, there is a LOT going on at my church too!” But even better, perhaps you thought, “I (and my family) need to participate in this!” For my part, I hope you thought both of them! At PLC we are once again blessed with a stellar group of dedicated Sunday School teachers, Youth leaders, and Bible study leaders. And we have engaging and edifying Christian materials that they will teach from.

General Robert E. Lee said “The education of a man is never completed until he dies.” To that I would add that the same should be said of Christian education. It is true that in the life of a congregation, worship, fellowship and service are held as of great importance. But can the same be said for teaching and for learning? Mary of Bethany indeed had the “better part” as Jesus termed it when she sat at Jesus feet as he taught.

This fall let all of us in the Peace Lutheran Church family dedicate or re-dedicate ourselves to “the better part”- to learning more about our God of love, grace and mercy. In so doing we learn more about ourselves, too! As individuals and as families let us participate in the many Christian Education classes listed in this newsletter and also in special classes or seminars that may occur during the Sunday School year.

If you are a parent, encourage your children to regularly come to Sunday School classes, Peacemakers, Confirmation, and Youth group and be persistent about it when you need to be! For all adults, if you haven’t been attending the Adult Forum class held during the Sunday School hour I encourage you to do so. The fellowship is awesome, the lessons are edifying and we always strive to have plenty of time for discussion and questions. If your schedule permits you to come, the same can be said of the Crossways study group also. Let us grow in the Lord together!

Love in Christ,
Pastor Jeff

Dear Peace Family,

Early in August, I was privileged to take a group of High School Students on an Urban Mission Trip to Denver, CO. The kids did a very fine job presenting the trip during and after Sunday Worship when they returned. I thought I would use my monthly letter to give you my take.

What impressed me from the very beginning was that the students expressed their desire to do another summer mission and took responsibility to research their options. We partnered with the Center for Student Missions, a ministry that coordinates mission opportunities in cities across the United States. I think the kids were aware that an "urban mission" would stretch them. They weren't disappointed.

From the first evening, when we were taken on a prayer tour of the city, we started to become more aware of the needs and problems of a large urban area (with a population larger than our state!). After a great meal of Indian tacos, we ended the night with a beautiful evening view of the entire city. We talked about the culture of the city and how we might relate to it, discussed our expectations and fears, and prayed together. It was a good start to our week!

Each day we engaged in at least two different ministries that work in the city year 'round. We harvested beans and picked weeds at the Denver Urban Gardens, loaded school supplies in backpacks for kids, met and shared meals with some of the area's homeless people, day laborers, and low-income elderly; and served meals to folks living in motels, on the street, and with rescue missions. Our week concluded with helping with a kid's activity program put on by 'Hope for Our City' a ministry to children of refugee families. This trip gave us moments of 'hands-on' experience as well as educational. Our host from CSM made sure that we had understanding of, and empathy for the people we were among, the needs they have, and the nature of the ministry organization with which we partnered.

Each morning we started the day by making breakfast, bagging up our lunches and spending some time in passages of Scripture that related to our experience. We discussed spiritual gifts, gifts of the Spirit and overcoming fear with faith. We were all pushed out of our "comfort zones" and relied on Biblical truth and prayer. Each evening we gathered to debrief the day and spent time praying together.

The youth and I felt supported by our family at PLC. The van made the long trip much more comfortable. Thank you for investing in our young people. They made us all proud!!

Special thanks to Val Ross, who did most of the 'set-up' for the trip, and Jaimie Lee, who accompanied us as an adult chaperone. This was a team effort.

Gratefully,
Pr. Bob

THE BLESSINGS OF PEACE

It's amazing to me that all I have to do is be present and open in my heart to experience the love that God has for us. Blessings are all around us. When we're working side by side with other people, a bond inevitably forms. This was part of God's plan for how the church is supposed to work. That's why Hebrews 10: 24-25 instructs us to "spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together.... But encouraging one another."

We at Peace are so very blessed to have Pr. Bob and Pr. Jeff. This past week was a very busy one for our Church. Pr. Bob went with the Youth on a Mission trip to Denver and Pr. Jeff worked hard at home getting the outdoor worship service ready. Pr. Bob and Pr. Jeff work hard to attend to every need of our Church family. I knew some of the obvious things that these Pastors do, but those are just the tip of the iceberg. Let me just name a few things that I know about: home visitation; hospital visits; Bible study; Peacemakers; committee meetings; Ladybug activities; Council meetings; weekly sermons; Confirmation; New member orientation; Adult forum; Men's breakfast; Ministerial Association; Northwest Council; Newsletter, counseling; weddings, marriage counseling; Youth activities; Baptisms, Vacation Bible school.

Our Pastors are "hands on" folks. What a blessing to have two Pastors encouraging us and spurring us on toward love and good deeds. Our Pr. Bob and Pr. Jeff are very busy serving God and leading each of us to a closer relationship with Him.

Matthew 16:24 says; Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If any of you want to come with me you must forget yourself, carry your cross, and follow me."

Jackie Currey

Serving Lunch with Capitol Hill Community Services

On August 6th -13th, six Senior High Youth and two adults went on a Mission Trip to Denver, CO. The youth were Abigail Ross, Shelby Lee, Matthew Mitchell, Dylan Bell, Nathan Ross and Ashton Olson. Pastor Bob and Jaimee Lee were the Adult Leaders.

The kids were involved with several ministries throughout the city of Denver. They learned a lot about the city, its problems and what God's people are doing to overcome them.

PLC has a pool of volunteers to serve meals on the 4th Sunday of every month. Our next Sunday of service is Sunday, September 25. Please let Karlene know in the Church Office if you want to be added to the list of volunteers. We couldn't do it without your help!

Thursday Night Bible Book Club

As September approaching it is time to start the Thursday night book club. Several members have been discussing book options and I think we are looking at Twelve Extraordinary Women by John MacArthur. We meet every Thursday night (7PM) at the church and will move to the youth room or someone's home on the night of church council.

The starting date has not been decided so please look for updates in the bulletin. We welcome all and hope for another good year of spiritual growth and fellowship. Any questions...Diane Oddy 282-7986.

The Altar Guild...who are we and what to do we, anyway? Well, we are a group who perform many behind the scenes duties. You could call us the “Prop and Set committee” or maybe even “the Roadies”, who work backstage to prepare for the important sacraments of communion and baptisms. We prepare the altar with paraments to reflect the Church Season and adorn it with flowers (quite often from our members’ gardens). Basically, we ensure that everything on the altar is ready for worship (i.e. candles, communion service, offering plates and special offering cups).

- + We prepare and clean up communion service and are involved in arranging for acolytes and preparing them for service.
- + We also prepare for baptisms and contribute items to be included in the Faith Chests that are presented to the family.
- + We handle the Cradle Roll for newly baptized babies under 3 years old to offer communication with the child and parents every six months for three years.
- + We decorate the altar with flowers at Easter from orders we get from members of the congregation. We also plant red geraniums in front of church for the season of Pentecost. We provide corsages for the confirmands on Confirmation Sunday.

Currently, we are group of women; however, we do not discriminate. There is no special talent or gender required. The sole requirement is the desire to serve in a quiet, gentle way. Quite often, it seems the only time a member of the congregation might become aware of what we do is IF it didn’t get done! And that suits us just fine. So...if you have a desire to give and be of service in a capacity that doesn’t require being in front of people or knowing how to play an instrument, give thought to joining us...the more, the merrier and the lighter the work. If you have any questions, see Heather Geiger, Audrey Vitarius or Carol White.

He emphasized it is important to have council members prepared to count the Sunday offering and get it deposited in a timely manner. The monthly Council counters need to communicate among themselves to determine who will be available on any given Sunday. If someone is going to be absent, simply notify Mike Hansen, and he will make arrangements for counting and/or substitutes.

 - c. Congregation Education Opportunity. Pr. Bob reported on a ministry called Right Now Media which offers videos for training and education for members of the church.  - b. New Internet Service. Derrick reported on his conversation with the internet company. They will come out to choose a path to install cable and discuss service needed.
 - c. Pr. Jeff's possibility of becoming NW District President. This was covered in Pr. Jeff's report.
 - d. Pr. Bob reported on the Library, Phase II. It will happen. He needs help moving shelves and books.
 - e. Question brought up: Do we need a nursery?
 - f. Tom brought up the "Little Free Library" concept in re putting a book shelf outside the church for passerbys to take and/or give a book. See littlefreelibrary.org for an idea of how it would work.

g. Bruce reported that some garden plots have had all their plants die. He suggested we contact the renters and offer a refund or a free year next year. Jackie so moved, seconded by John, passed. Bruce also reported on a church he visited In Oklahoma, with some 2500 in attendance, that passed buckets for the offering. The pastor said that they were collecting for a new building. He also said that if anyone couldn't afford rent, clothing, or food, they should reach into the bucket and take what they needed.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:25 p.m. with a closing prayer. Jackie has devotions for the next Council meeting on Thursday, August 11, 2016, 7:00 p.m.
